The Buzzer

Brookville High School

Lynchburg, Virginia

I Production:

Binding -- Good

Printing -- Good

Photography -- Better than average

Engraving -- Good

II Contents:

Cover -- A little too plain and dull

Interior layout -- Shows some real thought. The introductory page is very good and the theme in the division page is nicely carried out. The snaps are well placed and pretty good.

Division Pages -- They are well balanced and show some originality.

Ads -- "Compliments of" should be avoided, but the ad section is better than average.

III General:

The general appearance of the book is good. The balance is good, the theme well carried out and technically better than average - this all makes a well appearing and easy to read annual.

THE BUZZER GROWS UP

With pen in hand, I, the Brookville Bee, do inscribe the twelfth volume of The Buzzer.

I first edited an annual in 1937. That year it was known as The Reflector. Then after four years, the name was changed to "Buzzer," honoring me, the bee. Since then it has steadily improved. Now in the year 1948 it is my privilege to present an enlarged volume of The Buzzer.

This Buzzer is divided into four sections. At the beginning you find the administration. They have served well and shall be remembered. In my second section, the students themselves are presented by classes. In my third section, you will see the important phases of school life in action. Without my fourth section, The Buzzer would not be possible. Here are the business firms who have contributed the financial aid necessary for printing and publishing The Buzzer.

I have prepared thoughtfully and carefully every page. It is your book, published for you. Look through every page. Read every word. May you catch the spirit of Brookville as you explore the pages of The Buzzer of 1948.

MESSAGE TO SENIORS

You, the Class of 1948, are stepping out into the world at a time when the greatest need is for clear courageous thinkers. The public school, as the basis of our democracy, has given you the fundamentals and handed you the ball. Carry it straight and hard from here. Our very best wishes go with you.

Mrs. Pletcher	Faculty Adviser

SENIORS

MARY LOU BEASLEY

Mary Lou's boy friends are quite a few,
she is always looking for someone new.

BARBARA ANN BOWLES

Barbara's our fashion plate, she's so popular and up-to-date.

JOYCE MAYBELLE BOWLING

Joyce's a nurse, so starchy and white.
She's up to something from morn till night.

VIRGINIA ELIZABETH BRYANT

Cheerful and carefree, that's Jennie.
She has friends a plenty.

THOMAS OWEN CANDLER

A laugh, a wave, a friendly grin. It speaks for itself—the mood he's in.

EARNEST GERALD CAREY

Gerald's already six-foot-four, but his ambition is to grow some more

JOYCE LEE CHAMBERS

With a sparkle in her eye and a smile on her lips, she is bursting with fun to her finger tips.

SHIRLEY MAY CLARK

Prize packages are always small. For her, Glenn sure did fall.

SENIORS

BARBARA ANN COLEMAN

*Barbara is president of the F. H. A.
She helps the girls in every way.*

LUCILLE ELIZABETH CONNER

A charming girl is Lucille, this fact about her we can't conceal.

MARY SUE COPAL

Sue has a way about her, you must admit. And with that certain boy, she really makes a hit.

ROBERT JAMES COUSINS

They say the bees are buzzin', but it's only Bobby Cousins.

BILLY PERRONEAU CRAFT

Billy is too well known we fear, for us to introduce him here.

JOHN VICTOR DEARING

A careful guy is Vic. He likes to know what makes things tick.

WILLIAM EDWARD DODSON

*Though he seems carefree and happy go lucky, to the senior class he's
"Just Ducky."*

BENJAMIN WOOD DOLAN

Small and quiet is our Ben, but to everyone he's a friend.

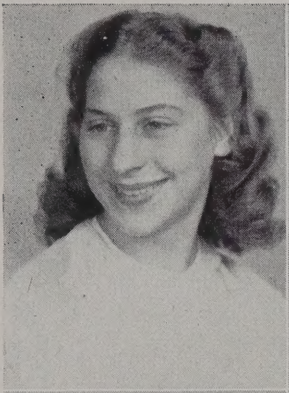
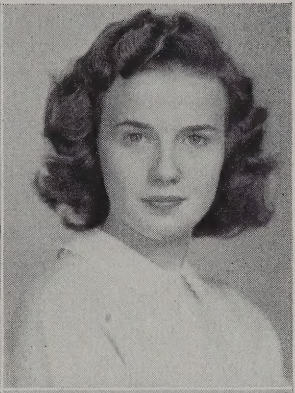
SENIORS



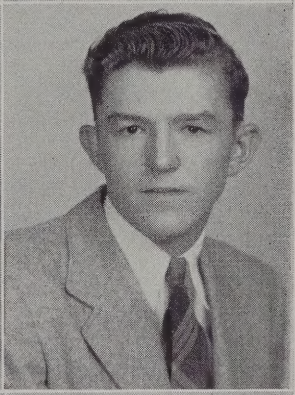


AUDREY LOTTIE DOWDY

Audrey's nimble, Audrey's quick. At bookkeeping she's right slick.

IRMA CORETTA DRISKILL

This star that glitters on our stage. Simply will not act her age.

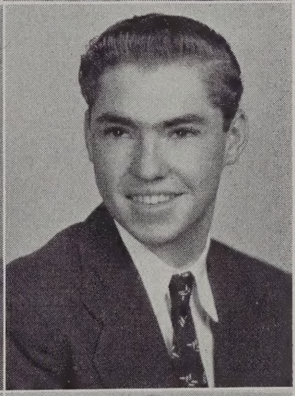


NANCY ADAMS GARBEE

Nancy is our flower in bloom; for her those fellows sure do swoon

CHARLIE REVELEY GUNTER

Charlie's cute and quite a guy, around the girls he takes their eye.

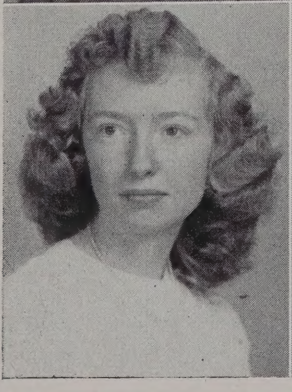


FREDA LEE HAYDEN

Freda's sure to succeed in life. She'll make that guy a wonderful wife.

HOWARD LEE HENSLEY

Howard's a nice fellow we all agree. We asked Becky and she said Gee!



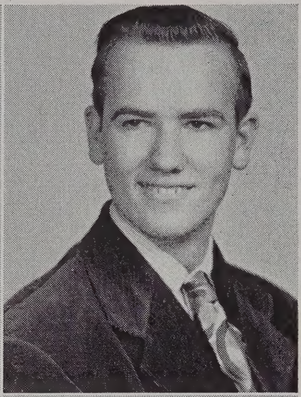
BETTY JANE LAWRENCE

Winning smile and hair of red, what thoughts rest in your knowing head?

BETTY LOU LIPSCOMB

Betty Lou, known to us as Ma. Sho puts her foot down on poor ole Pa.

SENIORS

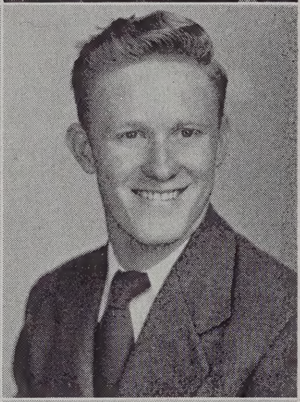


MILDRED ANN MARSH

What a figure, what a gal! All the boys want to be her pal.

ALEX RAY MASON

Ray is one on whom you can rely. We know he'll be famous by and by.

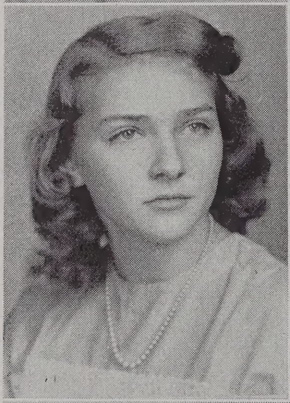


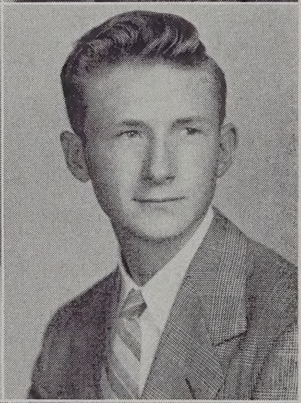
RUBY DOROTHY MASON

The sweetest disposition and the gentlest heart. We'll remember Ruby when we're far apart.

QUINN BEASLEY MORRISON

The star of our class is Quinn. We all adore that crooked grin.



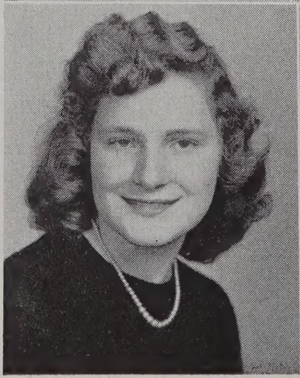


BILLIE MURRELL NEWMAN

Billie's inquisitive, smart and wise. She wants to know the what's and why's

HARRY PERONNEAU ORE

He hits the ball and seems to fly. He'll help win that game for Brookville High.



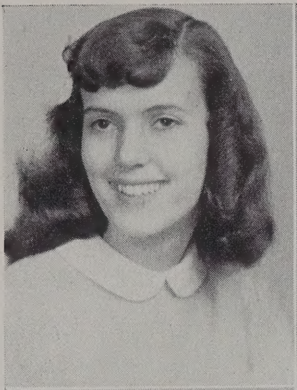
MARY MAGDLANE PHILLIPS

Mary's a swell sport, good and square. She's liked by everybody, everywhere.

RUTH ALICE PHILLIPS

Ruth, tall, dark and sweet to see. What a lovely nurse she will be.

SENIORS



DORCAS ESTHER PRESTON

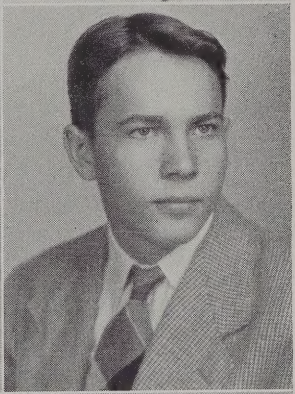
Oh so quiet and so shy. Dorcas catches everyone's eye.

JOYCE HOPE RICE

Joyce is quite a chick. At square dancing she's a trick.

LILLIAN ADREANA RILEY

Not too sober, nor too gay; just a friend in a pleasing way.

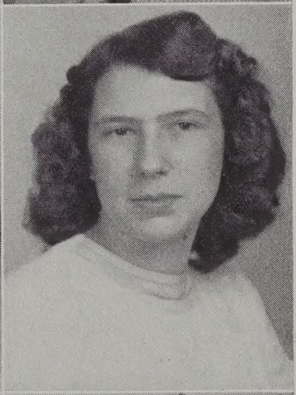


BENJAMIN PIERCE RORER

This guy is an awful tease. Likes to hear the girls say please.

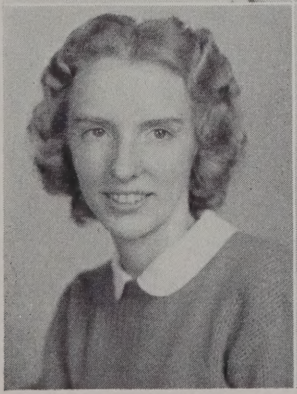
EDNA MAE SMITH

Smooth waters run deep. So her friendships are all for keep.



FRANCES KATHERINE SMITH

Tooties a typist, quick and sure. For loneliness, she's a swell cure.



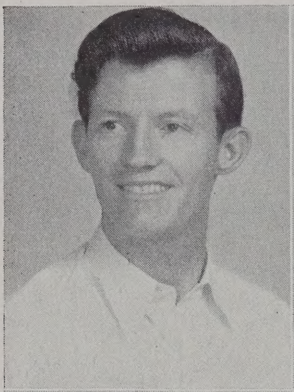
CATHERINE IRENE STUMP

In Catherine, let us behold. A smile of sunshine and a heart of gold.

SOPHIE DEAN SUTHARD

If you want a pal, she's the one. For she's truly sweet and fun.

SENIORS



GEORGE EDWARD TORIAN

A veteran come back to make us glad
In class and every sport, he's quite a lad.

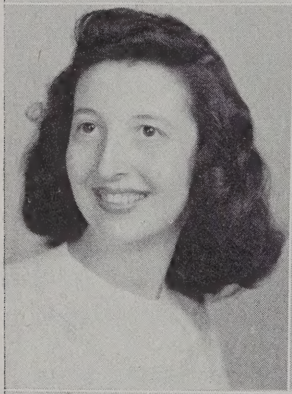
GENE EARL WELLS

Happy go lucky, Careless and free,
Nothing there is, That worries me.



DORIS ELIZABETH WINNAGLE

Last but not least comes our Dot. She's one of the best among our lot.

PAUL MARTIN WIRT

I don't know exactly how to express it.
But everyone likes Paul. Can't you guess it?

CHARLES HAL WOOLDRIDGE

Jolly he is, and carefree. Why can't we all be happy like he?

DEDICATED TO FATHER TIME

1

In September of 1944,
Eighty green frosh entered Brookville's door,
We began our classes with much joy,
To find, Mr. Hicks was no play boy.
Now Mrs. Macon, was quite a whizz—
She would give us questions and then a quiz.
English and History were play to us,
Because our teachers made them such.
So drew the first year to a close,
Nothing to do, but dream and doze.

II

Then once again in 1945,
We started the year very much alive.
Yes, Sophomores, and very loud,
It was detention hall for our crowd.
Now Mr. Hicks was very glad,
But the thoughts of detention made us sad,
Truly we were yet more sad,
When we lost Mr. Copenhaver, a very fine lad.
He was a swell principal and not too rough,
Unless we made things just too tough.
So ended our Sophomore year at last,
Another summer to come and pass.

III

Fifty-two Juniors, mighty and strong,
With a new principal to guide them along.
"Swing Fever," the annual play,
Was a tremendous success in every way.
The Holland Bonket was right on the ball
With loads of fun for one and all.
Another great day—our rings arrived;
Then all the bees came out of the hive!
On May the thirtieth we left once more,
Looking forward to next year and fun galore.

IV

Seniors at last and exceedingly proud
To have Mrs. Pletcher still with our crowd,
To help us and guide us through each hour,
And make each day seem gay as a flower.
The final play entitled, "Just Ducky"
Inspired the class and we were quite lucky.
It seems Washington, D. C. made a hit,
We think it helped us quite a bit.
As a memorable event of our Senior year,
The Junior-Senior Banquet we'll treasure dear.
As the days pass on and the years roll by,
We'll always remember dear Brookville High.

DIVERSIFIED OCCUPATIONS CLASS

The above D. O. students have made an outstanding contribution to Brookville High School during the 1947-48 term. Their work has been excellent and has been of great value to the school and community.

These students are trained in some specific occupation both in theory and practice. They spend one hour per day in classroom study of the occupation in which they are interested, and then go out into the business institutions and work at least three hours daily on the job. They are paid a training wage for this actual work.

The occupations represented by this class are varied and interesting. They include Retail Selling, General Office Work, Sheet Metal Work, Typewriter Repairing, Stockroom Clerking, Refrigeration and Air Conditioning, Auto Mechanics, Advertising, Nursing, Pattern Cutting, Laundry Route Work, and Organ Installation.

TRACK AND BASEBALL

Track and baseball were the only varsity teams sponsored by Brookville this year. New football uniforms have been purchased, and a four sport state of competition is anticipated for 1948-49.

JUNIOR-SENIOR BANQUET

The Junior Class played host to the Senior Class in the annual Junior-Senior Banquet, which was held at the Woman's Club, April 16.

The theme of the banquet was carefully woven around an old-fashioned garden with a wishing-well. The menu, speeches, music and decorations emphasized the theme. At one end of the banquet hall, we walked under a vine covered trellis into a garden where we visited the old wishing well and drew our fortunes. At intervals sounds of laughter came from this direction.

Then strains of music came floating to our ears and soon we heard the swishing of gowns and the patter of feet keeping time. The dancing was delightful and Mr. Milam helped to make the evening one of fun with his John Paul Jones.

When the hour of departure had come, some left with joyful hearts, looking forward to another such occasion while others left with heavy hearts, knowing that this event would now become part of their memoirs.
